IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE.

President Johnson's Response to Senate Resolutions of January 5th and February 27th.

From the message of the President, covering the correspondence with the Provisional Governors, sent to the Senate in compliance with its resolutions of January 5 and February 27 last, we make the following interesting extracts:

North Carolina.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, N. C., June 19, 1865.

SIR: I shall soon have to give directions to county boards, making provisions for the enrolment of voters.

I respectfully request to be instructed whether paroled soldiers will be allowed to vote for delegates to the State Convention upon taking the oath of amnesty, or will each soldier have to procure the President's pardon?

I am, most respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
W. W. HOLDEN.

Hon. W. H. Seward, Sec. of State.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, June 24, 1865.

SIR: I have received your letter of the 19th inst., asking whether it will be necessary for paroled soldiers to obtain a special pardon from the President, or whether the taking of the amnesty oath only will entitle them to vote at the election to which you refer. In reply, I have the honor to enclose a copy of the circular of this department of the 29th ult., and of the accompanying proclamations of the President, from which it will be seen that a special pardon is not necessary for any military men below the rank specified in the proclamation of that date.

I am your very obedient servant,
WM. HUNTER, Acting Sec.

His Excellency, W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of N. C., Raleigh.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, May 29, 1865.

SIR: A copy of the President's amnesty proclamation of this date is herewith appended.—By a clause in the instrument, the Secretary of State is directed to establish rules and regulations for administering and recording the amnesty oath, so as to insure its benefits to the people and guard the government against fraud. Pursuant to this injunction you are informed that the oath prescribed in the proclamation may be taken and subscribed before any commissioned officer, civil, military or naval, in the service of the United States or territory, who by the laws thereof may be qualified for administering oaths. All officers who receive such oaths are hereby authorized to give certified copies thereof to the persons respectively by whom they were made. And such officers are hereby required to transmit the original of such oaths, at as early a day as may be convenient, to this department, where they will be deposited, and remain in the archives of the Government. A register thereof will be kept in the department, and on application, in proper cases, certificates will be issued of such records in the customary form of official certificates.

I am, sir, your ob't. serv't,
WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, July 8, 1865.

Sir: Your letter to the President of the 26th ultimo was delivered by Mr. Worth. The President is gratified with the opinion expressed favorable to the prospect of State organization in North Carolina. Your remarks in regard to collisions between colored troops and white persons have been referred to the War Department. Mr. Worth will make an estimate of the expenses which may attend the special trust conferred upon you—namely, the organization of the State of North Carolina. The amount thus reasonably estimated will be paid at the War Department as an expense incident to the suppression of the rebellion. The estimate, however, will carefully exclude all expenses which may arise from the administration of the civil government of the State, including the charities thereof. It is understood here that, besides cotton, which has been taken by the Secretary of the treasury under act of Congress, there were quantities of rosin and other articles, as well as funds, lying about in different places in the State, and elsewhere, not reduced into possession by United States officers as insurgent property. The President is of opinion that you can appropiate these for the inevitable and indispensable expenses of the civil government of the State during the continuance of the provisional government. He is also of the opinion that you can levy taxes or assessments for these inevitable and indispensable expenses and enforce their collection. Should you adopt this course, and find yourself impeded or embarrassed in the execution of the measure, you will then report to this department, and orders will be given by the War Department to the military authorities to take charge of the matter.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,
WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

His Excellency W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina, Raleigh.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 22, 1865.

Governor Wm. W. Holden, Raleigh, N. C.:

Information comes to me that reports are freely circulating in influential quarters, and where, without contradiction, they are calculated to do harm, to the effect that in appointments to office, and in the recommendations for appointments, the true Union men are totally ignored, and the provisional governors are giving a decided preference to those who have participated in the rebellion. The object of such representations is to embarrass the government in its reconstruction policy; and while I place no reliance in such statements, I feel it due to you to advise you of the extended circulation they have gained, and to impress upon you the importance of encouraging and strengthening to the fullest extent the men of your State who have never faltered in their allegiance to the government. Every opportunity should be made available to have this known and understood as your policy and determination. Acknowledge the receipt of this telegram.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

DAILY SENTINEL.

"I WOULD RATHER BE RIGHT THAN BE PRESIDENT."—Henry Clay.

VOL. I. RALEIGH, FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 23, 1866. NO. 191.

RALEIGH, North Carolina,
August 26, 1865.

The President:

SIR:—In reply to your dispatch of August 22, I have the honor to state in no instance in making appointment to office, or in recommending for appointment, have I shown any preference for persons who have participated in the rebellion; on the contrary I have been very careful to prefer and appoint persons who were originally Union men, and persons who were in favor of restoring the authority of the Federal Government. Doubtless in many appointments (some four thousand) some have been appointed who ought not to have been, and in some cases even friends have misled to some slight extent, by their recommendations, but, upon the whole, only loyal men have been appointed and recommended at Washington. It is my purpose and wish to encourage and strengthen those who never at heart faltered in their allegiance to the Federal Government. I have proceeded deliberately and carefully in the work of reorganizing, and thus far I am sure there are no grounds for apprehending that North Carolina will not present an acceptable constitution. The great body of her people are loyal and submissive to national authority. I know there are malcontents, radicals, and not good men, who are engaged in misrepresenting facts, and fermenting strife for certain purposes; but none of these things move me in the performance of duty.

Thanking you heartily for the confidence you have heretofore reposed in me, and for the honor you have done me in making me Provisional Governor of this noble State, I am, sir, &c.,

W. W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 27, 1865.

Governor W. W. Holden, Raleigh, N. C.:

My telegram was merely intended to call your attention to the impression being made by those who are opposed to the Southern States resuming their former relations with the federal government, and in making appointments to guard against it as far as practicable, and thereby deprive them of all excuse for opposing a restoration of State governments.

It is not certain that I will visit Richmond, but if I determine to do so I will include Raleigh.

Mississippi has acted promptly and well.—God grant that the Southern people will see their true interests and the welfare of the whole country and act accordingly.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 30, 1865.

Gov. W. W. Holden, Raleigh, N. C.:

Major General Meade has been sent South for the purpose of inspecting all the troops, with power to assign them as the interest of the country seems to demand.

I hope you will see General Meade, and confer with him freely as to the disposition of the forces in North Carolina. I have no doubt all will be arranged satisfactorily to the people.

I hope all is going on right.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

RALEIGH, N. C., September 21, 1865.

To the President:

SIR: I have decided that a person who belongs to the excluded classes cannot vote; so they cannot sit in convention unless they exhibit their pardons. Ex-Governor Graham, of Orange, in a letter published in the newspapers, holds that unpardoned persons can sit in the convention. He declines being a candidate, but urges this view. Am I right or wrong? The letter to ex-Governor Graham, to which he replies, taking this view, does not show a good spirit.

The election here is progressing quietly. A large vote will be polled in this State. I will telegraph you as the returns come in.

W. W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21, 1865.

Governor W. W. Holden, Raleigh, N. C.:

Your decision is correct—that under the proclamation they cannot vote for members, or sit in Convention as members, without first being pardoned or taking the amnesty oath. If the party comes within any one of the exceptions, they must obtain a pardon before voting or sitting as a member. All those who are aspirants to seats in the Convention, and are elected, will be pardoned upon your recommendation and a submission of their names by telegraph.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President United States.

RALEIGH, N. C., October 17, 1865.

His Excellency the President of the United States:

SIR:—Contrary to my expectation, the Convention has involved itself in a bitter discussion of the State debt made in aid of the rebellion. A continuance of this discussion will greatly excite the people and retard the work of reconstruction. Our people are believed to be against assuming the debt by a large majority. Is it not advisable that our Convention, like that of Alabama, should positively ignore this debt now and forever? Please answer at once.

W. W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 18, 1865.

W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor, Raleigh, N. C.

Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever. The great mass of the people should not be taxed to pay a debt to aid in carrying on a rebellion which they, in fact, if left to themselves, were opposed to.—Let those who have given their means for the obligations of the State look to that power they tried to establish in violation of law, constitution, and will of the people. They must meet their fate. It is their misfortune, and, cannot be recognized by the people of any State, professing themselves loyal to the United States and in the Union. I repeat that the loyal people of North Carolina should be exonerated from the payment of every dollar of indebtedness created to aid in carrying on the rebellion. I trust and hope that the people of North Carolina will wash their hands of everything that partakes in the slightest degree of the rebellion, which has been so recently crushed by the strong arm of the Government in carrying out the obligations imposed by the Constitution of the Union.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 20, 1865.

The President of the United States:

SIR: The Convention has adjourned: It has promptly repudiated every dollar of the rebel debt, and bound all future legislatures not to pay any of it. Your telegram had a most happy effect. The Worth faction is working hard, but will be defeated by a large majority. Turner and other contumacious leaders ought to be handled at the proper time. Please pardon no leading men unless you hear from me.

Very respectfully,
W. W. HOLDEN.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27, 1865.

W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor, Raleigh, N. C.:

Accept my thanks for the noble and efficient manner in which you have discharged your duty as Provisional Governor. You will be sustained by the government.

The results of the recent elections in North Carolina have greatly damaged the prospects of the State in the restoration of its governmental relations. Should the action and the spirit of the legislature be in the same direction, it will greatly increase the mischief already done and might be fatal.

It is hoped the action and spirit manifested by the legislature will be so directed as rather to repair than increase the difficulties under which the State has already placed itself.

We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

"We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,

PROSPECTUS
COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly

Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to

Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00

Congress—The Situation.

In the Senate, on Wednesday, a bill was passed, providing for the punishment of certain crimes against the United States. It imposes ten years imprisonment as the penalty for forging United States bonds and securities.

The House passed the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill, and a bill to facilitate commercial, postal and military communication betwen the several States.

There is little reason to hope that the Senate will concur in the proposition to adjourn in May, or at any other time, until the political and financial condition of the country shall be settled in some manner in accordance with their views. That body is behind the House in the extent of its radical power, but it hopes to regain the two-thirds majority which it has for the present lost.

The President received the Civil Rights Bill on Friday last, one week since, and great doubt is entertained in political circles as to his action upon it, though the more general impression is that he will give us another veto. The bill is insidiously designed to effect the same ends that the Freedmen's Bureau bill had in view. The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Examiner intimates that the President regards it as not only unconstitutional, but unnecessary, because all the rights of the people of the United States are already abundantly secured by the Constitution, and if the negroes have any wrongs to complain of, the State laws and the State courts afford them ample redress.

The Stewart so-called compromise resolutions are still exciting attention. We have already expressed our opinion of the propositions they embrace. If the people of the South shall choose, at any time, to invest the negro with the privileges which they contemplate, let them so endow him of their free and independent choice; but to purchase their security, by the surrender of manhood and honor, is a degradation of which they are not capable.

The Supreme Court of the United States, on Tuesday, took up a case from the State of Louisiana. The world moves!

"We presume that no one can doubt that, could such fanatical disturbers of the public peace as Sumner, Wilson and Phillips, have been put aside, after the suspension of hostilities, the country would now be in the enjoyment of peace and quiet."—Sentinel.

"The Sentinel regrets that Messrs. Sumner and Wilson, the Senators from the powerful and enlightened State of Massachusetts, were not "put aside"—that is, executed or assassinated at the close of the rebellion."—Standard.

THE Standard knows perfectly well that nothing was further from our thoughts than to intimate a desire for the "assassination" of Sumner, Phillips & Co. It knows, as well as we do, that our allusion was simply to the political "putting aside" of the turbulent agitators. If we could be surprised at any unfairness on the part of that paper, we should be so at its paltry perversion of our language in this matter. It measures our motives by its own. Because it is continually "breathing out slaughter and threatenings" against a large class of its own people; because it daily evinces a willingness to "assassinate" the reputation of its own State; it imagines, or pretends to imagine, that others are as truculently disposed.

If we had it in our power, we would not harm a hair on the heads of those disturbers of the public peace whom we have denounced.—We would simply consign them to that political infamy, to which, in common with their confreres and co-adjutors in the South, we believe they will ultimately be consigned by the "sober second thought" of the people. Like President Johnson, we have confidence in them!

IN NEARLY every city in the South the civil authorities are preparing against the advent of disease. Whether the apprehensions of the people are well founded or not is no apology for neglect. Every city, town and village in the country should be thoroughly subjected to the most stringent sanitary regulations at once, and continually. It should also be the imperative duty of the military authorities to enforce similar regulations in all freedmen's villages, which have already, for weeks past, been the sources of loathsome disease, now prevailing in many sections of the South.

THE LAWS.—We receive frequent applications for copies of the laws passed by the late Legislature. They are not yet printed, but, if they were, we have no authority to dispose of them. The Secretary of State has sole control of their distribution.

National Parties.

We have, on several occasions, intimated that we thought it highly impolitic, until the question of reconstruction is fully settled, for the Southern people to form two or diverse parties on questions involving national politics, except in so far as we could with propriety do so, in giving all possible moral support to the Union and to President Johnson's reconstruction policy; and hence we have avowed our preference, that all old party designations and machinery should, for the nonce, at least, be laid aside, and that there should be a universal rally among all conservative men, both North an l South, beneath a distinct and significant banner: "THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY," under the leadership of President Johnson.

Conservatism, the preservation and strict observance of the Constitution and the laws, in order to the Union and prosperity of the entire nation, is a principle, and not strictly a party. Conservative men have hitherto been found in all parties, though differing as to measures.—These differences may still exist, yet, in order to effect the greater good, by placing the Union on a sound and permanent basis under the Constitution, these diverse measures should be held in abeyance to the one great design of giving peace, unity, fraternity and solidarity to the nation.

We are glad to find our views in the main supported by an able writer in a late National Intelligencer, signed "Virginius." We, however, think "National Union party" a better name than the "Constitutional Union party." The former really embraces the latter, and the former strikes us as having more charm to the ear.

The writer says:

"It is folly to think that the friends of the Constitution and the Union can be brought together as Whigs or Democrats, or by any other obsolete party designation.

I regret to see that the Democrats of the North seem disposed to adhere to their old party name. If their purpose be to court defeat, as they did in 1860, they are acting wisely. But if they desire victory, they must deserve it by a patriotic abandonment of old party names and prejudices.

Disguise it as we may, all well-informed men know that democracy, as a party name, is distasteful to the people of the South, from its supposed agency in bringing about our present troubles; and it is distrusted in the North for its alleged sympathy with disunion agitators.

We must deal with things as we find them.—Prejudices are facts which must be considered in the business of life. Whether well or ill-formed they will exert their influence, and especially in political contests.

The living issues have nothing to do with old party questions or party names. They are higher and broader than any that have heretofore divided the country. They affect not only the Administration, but the very existence of the Government.

We must rise to the greatness of the occasion. Momentous events have broken up and disbanded party organizations. We must disband old party designations. We must forget old party prejudices. We must sacrifice all these on the altar of our common country. We must come together as patriots. Our bond of union must be a common purpose to restore the Union and to vindicate the Constitution from perversion and innovation.

Let the appeal then go forth to the country in behalf of the Constitution and the Union. The appeal will not be in vain. The friends of Henry Clay and of Andrew Jackson, of Millard Fillmore and Franklin Pierce, will alike respond to it.

The policy of Andrew Johnson will give us a solid ground to stand on in the outset, and the restoration and the preservation of the Union, and the vindication and maintenance of the Constitution in the spirit in which our fathers formed it, will be an enduring bond of fraternity in the future.

Away, then, with Whiggery and Democracy, and all the old trumpery of the past. Let those who value the Union and the Constitution, as above all price, come together, and, with united hearts and voices, declare our fixed and unalterable purpose to stand by the Constitution and the Union."

Valley of Virginia.

A correspondent of the Biblical Recorder, of this City, writing from the Valley of Virginia, gives an interesting account of matters in that section of country. Alluding to the many melancholy evidences of the war that abound throughout that stricken region, the writer feelingly observes:

"It has been frequently remarked that among our dead here, there seem to be more from North Carolina than any other State. Dear North Carolina! Brave old North State! The tears of Virginia's daughters are mingled with the flowers they have scattered over the graves where thy heroes lie sleeping; and it has been their sad privilege to administer to the wants of many of them, ere they died."

It was the fortune of a large number of North Carolina regiments to be attached to the Corps that principally operated in the Valley, and one who has passed, or may travel, up and down it, will be mournfully impressed with the truth of the statement of this correspondent. Every where along its length the heroic dead of North Carolina lie sleeping,—many of them in unknown and unmarked graves. Near the numerous villages, however, that dot the country, in most of which hospitals were established, the Cemeteries have been attended with pious care, and bear touching testimony to the beautiful devotion of the daughters of Virginia. Many bereft ones in this State, whose kindred lie mouldering beneath the sod of the Valley, owe a debt of gratidute to the noble women of that region, though they may know it not. They would recognize it, in all its force, could the lips that are now silent tell of the gentle ministrations that soothed their last hours, and brought to the dying couch sweet memories of home.

Noble old Valley! Scourged and desolated land! Home of whole-souled hospitality, of social refinement and of high moral culture!—It is the earnest aspiration, we are sure, of all who have ever had an opportunity of cultivating the acquaintance, and testing the virtues, of its people, that the deep scars on its bosom may be speedily healed, and it again become, what by nature it was designed to be, and what before the struggle it was, the very garden spot of earth!

Mr. Jenkins' Speech.

We did not have space on yesterday to allude to Mr. Jenkins' speech in reply to Mr. Phillips, on the question of Negro testimony. It is a question of much importance, and one about which men may honestly differ, though they may harmonize on other subjects. We are anxious that our people should hear both sides, and hence we very cheerfully give our readers arguments pro and con.

We have heretofore stated, that, while our minds were impelled to the conviction that it was right in itself, and a necessity growing out of their new relation as Freedmen, yet we would not on that account force it upon our people, knowing their general aversion to it.—We repeat, the only reason which could justify the Legislature in adopting the Freedmen's Code, as it came from the hands of the Committee, in view of the general opposition of the people to the measure at present, was the assurance that the President regarded it as a necessary attribute in his plan of reconstruction, and essential to the restoration of quiet. It is perfectly manifest that this is what the President requires, and yet he prefers to advise, rather than seem to force such a requisition.

Our neighbor, the Standard, must know that the President requires this, yet it has studiously avoided giving it its support, though professedly in favor of sustaining the President. Why is this? It answers the question, when it intimates that, beause Gov. Worth, Mr. Phillips and the Sentinel "put their foot into it," we wished to drag it after us, but it had avoided it on account of its unpopularity. Is that the rule which actuates the Standard? Was it because the repudiation of the State war debt was popular with the people, that Gov. Holden urged the President to insist upon its repudiation by the Convention? And was it because the admission of negro testimony and the maintenance of the State credit were unpopular with the people, that it refused to sustain the President, by opposing them or ignoring them? Such a course may do for the politician, but does it meet the responsibility of an editor of a public press to the public, and to the President, whom it is pledged to sustain?

We claim to act upon higher grounds.—Whatever, according to our judgment, promotes the public welfare, its peace and prosperity, we are bound to advocate, and, as we are pledged to the support of the President's policy of reconstruction, we acknowledge ourselves bound to support whatever measure he insists upon as necessary to reconstruction. Hence, though we were opposed on principle to the repudiation of the State war debt, because of our anxiety to preserve the fair fame of the State's integrity and her pledges to parties, widows and orphans, and others not at all involved in the revolution, we readily yielded the question when we ascertained that the President demanded it.

Official Correspondence.

We publish, on our first page to-day, as a part of the history of the times, the correspondence which took place, at various intervals, between the President and the Provisional Governor of this State. We shall have occasion, doubtless, frequently to refer to it hereafter.—Meanwhile, the attention of the public cannot fail to be directed to these leading developments:

1. That the Provisional Governor, in several instances, prior to the election in November, unqualifiedly endorsed the loyal disposition of our people.

2. That the despatch from the Governor, which provoked the rebuke contained in the President's letter of Nov. 27, is not given.

3. That our assertion, that the President's recommendations relative to the repudiation of the Confederate debt were at the request and suggestion of the Provisional Governor, is fully sustained. And

4. That the Provisional Governor was the sole and exclusive barrier to the pardon of Gov. Graham.

WE ASSURE the Charlotte Guardian that it was far from our intention to saddle it with "charges" against the National Express Co. It was our purpose to say that the vindication, and not the "charges," was copied from that paper.

In his speech before the Democratic State Convention of Indiana, the Hon. D. W. Voorhees remarked, in regard to his expulsion from Congress, that it remitted him to the society of gentlemen, and permitted him to choose his own company.

GOLD closed in New York, on to-day, at 127½. Cot on had a declining tendency, with sales of 3,000 bales at 39@40 cents. Turpentine, 87@90 cents. Rosin, $8.25.

The House, yesterday, passed a concurrent resolution to adjourn in May. The country will respond to this action much in the temper as the maiden whose lover, after his acceptance, was urging an early day for the marriage.—"Why not in May, dearest?" plead the impassioned swain; when, seeing she hesitated, he added: "If May is too soon, call it June, my angel!" "Oh!" responded the bliss-anticipating damsel, "if you leave it to me, I shall say April."—N. Y. World.

SUCCESS OF THE "JOHNSON" PARTY.—The "Johnson" party is in the ascendant at Nahant, Massachusetts. At the recent town meeting the following officers were elected: Moderator, David Johnson; town clerk, A. D. Johnson; selectmen and assessors, W. H. Johnson, E. B. Johnson, C. Harvey Johnson; treasurer and collector, W. W. Johnson; school committee, Franklin E. Johnson, Walter Johnson. George L. Johnson was also appointed a constable.

The Charlottesville, (Va.) Chronicle says: One of our best farmers remarked to us, a few days since, that the raising of small stock in Virginia is now impossible. He said that a neighbor had lost, in the past nine months, by stealing, thirty-odd sheep and fifty-two hogs.

It would be superfluous to state the cause of this.

A mysterious and fatal disease has broken out among the horses in the livery stables of New York.

For the Sentinel.

North Carolina Land Loan Company—Real Estate Bank.

To the Hon. E. G. Reade, President, and the members of the State Convention:

GENTLEMEN:—The remarkable scarcity of money and the effect which such scarcity is to exert injuriously upon the enterprise and recuperation of the State, together with the fact that the Legislature failed to adopt any efficient method, to supply this deeply felt deficiency, direct every thoughtful mind to the State Convention as our only hope of speedy relief. We beg, therefore, very respectfully, to submit the following suggestions to your candid and thoughtful consideration, in advance of your re-assemblage in May next:

The late Legislature made divers appropriations to various objects, which are, in themselves, doubtless, altogether necessary, but in doing so had to make provision to meet them, by constructing revenue laws to collect the money from the people.

These appropriations amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars, and, when added to the Federal taxes, present an aggregate truly appalling. Never before, in the history of the State, has there existed a state of things so truly indicative of wide spread distress and social ruin. The truth cannot be resisted. We can neither close our eyes to its developments nor stop our ears to its utterances. It proclaims the sad truth, that the taxes cannot and therefore will not be paid.

In the Western counties, the people of large sections are entirely destitute of money. Their stock and provisions, which constituted their all, were almost entirely consumed and destroyed by the operations of the armies. They are destitute of even the common necessaries of life, and have no money with which to procure them. Petition after petition came to their representatives, asking for the enactment of stay laws and the postponement of the tax collections. How is it possible for them to respond to the tax gatherers?

There are other sections, where the people may do a little better, but, as a people, North Carolina presents a sad spectacle of dejection and social prostration. The wisest cannot penetrate the future with sufficient clearness to tell of scenes through which we may have to pass. There must be a constant tendency to gloom and despondency, too painful to contemplate, unless some measures of relief are inaugurated.

Various suggestions have been made with purposes no doubt purely patriotic and well intended. Some have favored the issuing of Treasury notes, some advocate the establishment of National Banks upon the remains of the old Banks, whilst others favor the idea of forming a company to borrow money on real estate, and with money so borrowed to establish a National Bank. All these plans were talked about by members of the Legislature, but still nothing was done.

The Legislature voted itself liberal pay; voted to pay the Governor, Judges, Solicitors and other officers of the State, and voted money as in duty bound to sustain the noble charities in behalf of our Deaf, Dumb, and the Blind, and the unfortunate Lunatics of the State. Indeed it would be difficult to point out an impropriety in the list of appropriations. The great difficulty is to get the money from the people.—The Legislature failed to solve this great problem; and now we naturally turn our eyes to the Convention, soon to reassemble, whose prerogative it is, no less than that of the Legislature, to act in behalf of the public good. Indeed, it is the gravest of all representatives of the people, and is charged with powers peculiar to itself. It can, and we trust it will, regard it a duty of the highest importance, to put in motion a financial system, which is demanded by our peculiar financial prostration.

An attempt is not made in this article to discuss the various projects to attain results so urgently demanded. One only, because the most simple and comprehensive, shall, at present, be elaborated. It is properly denominated the "Real Estate Loan Association." The object is to raise money for the establishment of a National Bank, with a capital sufficiently large to meet the pressing wants of the country. Such a scheme is regarded as altogether practicable, and as free from untoward consequences as any that can be devised under existing circumstances. Some view of its outlines, its workings, and its results, are respectfully submitted:

In the first place, we must present to capitalists an inviting and acceptable form of security, with solid basis, free from legal doubts and tainted with no fictitious values, and at the same time easily understood. A Company chartered for the purpose, with a capital of ten millions of dollars, might receive subscriptions to its stock predicated upon the real estate of the subscribers, who would accompany their subscriptions with their bond and a lien upon unencumbered property, valued in a manner to secure justice and equity, and by a rule that shall be uniform in its application. The Company will, in its corporate capacity, issue to its subscribers certificates of stock setting forth the usual points in such issues. After a designated amount shall have been subscribed, and the affairs of the Company shall have been properly shaped, it shall be competent to issue its own bonds, not exceeding in amount a stipulated per centage of its capital, which bonds shall have, say twenty years, to run or a time co-existent with the duration of its charter, the interest payable semi-annually in lawful money of the United States.

It cannot be doubted that such bonds will find favor among capitalists, as certainly nothing can be safer or more durable. These bonds could be exchanged for ready money at the lowest current rates. After the money is obtained, it should be invested with the least possible delay in Bonds of the Federal Government, the interest on which, being nearly equivalent to, would nearly neutralize the interest on the Bonds of the Company.

These things all having been accomplished, the Company is ready to apply for a charter for a National Bank, under the law of Congress. In the meantime, the stockholders in the Loan Company remain in undisturbed possession of their estates as fully as if no lien existed. The individual bonds and mortgages remain in the hands of, and under the control of, the Company. Foreign capitalists should and would have nothing to do with them, except through the Company. It should be provided that members of the Company should, at their option, have power to sell their property so mortgaged, the purchasers assuming the same relations to the Company as do the sellers.

A Sinking Fund provided for, with such functions as are suggested in the workings of the Bank, placed under proper direction and judiciously managed, would pay a large portion, if not the entire amount, of the bonded debt of the Company in the life time of the charter.—In shadowing forth the structure of such an institution, it is quite impossible and equally unnecessary now to enumerate all the particulars. As has already been said, the outlines only are alluded to, with the design mainly of inviting discussion and examination. The objects aimed at and the means proposed, all agree, are of vast public import.

Such an institution, if brought into existence, should come forth clothed with power for good and proportions of sufficient magnitude to accomplish it. Let it contemplate a paralyzed dejected and destitute community, and address itself to its relief. Let it feel that it owes its existence to the people and that its foundation is their homesteads. Place its direction in hands who will not sport with interests so dear, and who will hold to strict accountability its agents and its dealers. Lose sight at no time that the object of its creation is not only to give relief to the people, but is to furnish a sound State currency medium convertible at all times in lawful money of the United States.

The aid proposed should be, and doubtless would be, extended to all classes of our suffering population: To the honest farmer who, with the aid of a little ready money, could eliminate from his otherwise fruitless acres, crops which at the same time would render him comfortable and independent and contribute to feed hungry humanity; to the skillful manufacturer, whose quiet wheels would be put in motion by a little pecuniary assistance; and to the hard fisted mechanic, who with help would brighten and sharpen up his tools whereby to produce articles of prime necessity; to the enterprising miner, who with such help would develope the hidden treasures of the earth; to the merchant, who with such facilities could move the productions of the country and make them valuable to the producers; to the professional man, who would share incidentally the general prosperity. All these various interests of society, now languishing, would spring forth with new vigor. Emigration would flow in; schools would be sustained. The tax gatherers would cease to be an object of dread. The waning integrity of our people would revive.—The spirit of repudiation would be crushed. A future would be opened up to the whole country, and the "loved ones at home," clinging to us in helpless dependence, would bless God in the consciousness of new life and hope.

It would also do much to soften the asperities resulting from the bloody and devastating sectional contest out of which we have just emerged. Capitalists investing in our securities would become at once interested in our new career. We would be the more inclined to cherish kind feelings to those extending to us their confidence. It would be a link in the chain that binds us all to a common government and a common destiny.

The assumption is made that the affairs of the company will be skilfully and judiciously managed. There certainty exists nothing to excite apprehensions to the contrary, upon the hypothesis that there are among us men of tried integrity and acknowledged ability, ready to take hold of its management, who, in themselves, will be a guarantee of success. But if, in the providence of God, mistortunes should again befal the country, and society become a prey to civil commotion, the land values would be affected alike, whether in connection with this institution or not.

If it be regarded necessary for action at all towards the consummation of any financial scheme, it is manifest there should be no delay. The crisis is upon us, and a postponement is likely to prove fatal to all our hopes.—The clouds, charged with evil, are lowering and thickening all around us, and in our extremity the country naturally turns its eyes toward you as the sages and props of society, whilst your exalted position justifies the hope that you cannot only give shape to our future, but will cheerfully exert your commanding influence in behalf of our suffering countrymen.

JOHNSTON COUNTY LAND FOR SALE.
I offer for sale the two tracts of land known as the Zack Hill place, three and a half miles from Boon Hill, and on the Road to Lowell Factory, containing in both 224 acres. The improvements are a log dwelling house, smoke house, and stables, and a good well of water. The land is desirable for cultivation, as it is immediately upon Little River, where can be found any amount of the richest loam; and also very valuable for its pine forest, only a small quantity of which has been boxed, and will yield a crop of Turpentine the present year.
A good bargain may be had, as the proprietor is disposed to sell it cheap for cash.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite attention to the Professional Card of the Hon. Z. B. Vance. It will be seen, as we have heretofore mentioned, that he has permanently located in Charlotte. The continued feebleness of Mrs. Vance's health determined him to settle at that point, instead of at Wilmington, as he at one time contemplated.

The Messrs. Tucker present, as they well know how, another very attractive "bill of fare."

James M. Towles, Agent, offers Johnston County Lands for sale.

QUARTER-MASTER'S DEPARTMENT.—We learn that Maj. Winslow has been relieved from duty as Department Quarter-Master, and has left the State. We have not heard who is his successor.

MORE TROUBLE IN WILMINGTON.—A good deal of excitement was occasioned in Wilmington, on Wednesday, by the arrest of two colored soldiers, of the 37th U. S. C. T., by the city police, and the demand made for the surrender of the prisoners by two officers of said regiment.

The colored soldiers were arrested for violating one of the city ordinances and were accordingly lodged in the cage. Shortly after being placed in safe quarters a demand was made for them, by two officers of their regiment, that they be turned over to the military authorities. The Marshal objected to these proceedings unless proper written authority was shown, neither of these officers being in command of the post.

To this they objected, saying that they did not see that they were called upon to produce the authority for their actions; but subsequently a compromise was made by the men being sent back to the cell, while the officers went to produce their authority. An order from the commandant of the post was finally shown to the Marshal, who cheerfully released the prisoners to the military, who took charge of, and will prefer charges against them, for conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline.

FISHERIES IN EASTERN N. C.—The Norfolk Day Book says that, in conversation with a gentleman just from Edenton, it learns that the fisheries on Albemarle Sound are in full tide of operation. From present indications, our friends in the Eastern part of the State will reap a rich harvest during the present fishing season.

The Rules of Evidence Insisted on by North Carolina.

The State of North Carolina is well represented in the person of one of her Senators, Mr. Graham, who is at once cautious and bold, prudent and resolute; and, indeed, he may be taken as a fair exponent of the genius of the people of his State. Just now there is a point at issue between this gentleman and Mr. Fessenden.

The Senator from North Carolina insists, and with great show of reason, that "ex-parte testimony, from unknown or irresponsible sources," should be guarded against. In other words, that the rules of evidence should be applied in this weighty matter, which affects an entire State.

In short, Mr. Graham desires that the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, shall be embodied in the testimony to be laid before the public.

Mr. Fessenden insists on it that the immense mass of rubbish collected shall go to the public, without any examination into its value, and as Mr. Fessenden is on the strong side, of course remonstrance is unavailing.

Under these circumstances, we again ask while they are printing 30,000 copies of this ex-parte testimony, why not print at least the same number of the President's Message and accompanying documents on the condition of the South!—Norfolk Virginian.

GENERAL NEWS.

Captain M. F. Maury has left Mexico for England, and ex-Governor Allen for Paris. Dr. Kavanaugh, formerly of Missouri, died in Mexico on the 28th ult. General James E. Slaughter and Captain Price, son of Sterling Price, of Missouri, more recently Major General in the Confederate States army, are running a steam saw mill between Orizaba and Cordova. Generals Hindman, Hardeman, Watson, and Col.'s Green, Whaley, Fox and Roberts are at Cordova. Shelby, Price, Judge Perkins, Green and others have purchased land between Patrero and Cordova, and have gone to work to clear it. They, as all others who have capital, will do well. Two crops a year of cotton, coffee, tobacco, corn and vanilla can be raised in this region. General Shelby is the owner of a splendid farm, and is doing well.

The situation of affairs between Austria and Prussia is critical, and predictions of war are indulged. The trouble is, that Prussia is determined to reap all the benefits of the late combined spoliation of Denmark. Austria is unwilling to this, but knows not how to prevent it. Prussia has submitted a very humiliating ultimatum, and is pluming herself for fight if need be. Austria, embarrassed by the possession of Hungary, is afraid to incur the risk of hostilities, and will probably eat humble pie.

THE Lynchburg News says some persons learned that the cold weather of the latter part of last week had killed the fruit which had budded out. We are pleased to hear this fear is groundless. Buds, both of the peach and apricot, were shown us yesterday, gathered from a very exposed locality, which were not at all injured.—Richmond Whig.

RESTORATION OF PROPERTY.—Hon. Pierre Soule's mansion on Esplanade street, New Orleans, for about two years occupied as a Freedmen's Orphan Asylum, has been restored to him by order of General Howard.

Lincoln, Mass., has no poor house, liquor shop, or lawyer's office, and has no war debt, having paid each year's expense as it occurred.

The Wisconsin Senate has adopted a resolution striking out the word "white" from the section in regard to the qualifications of electors, by a vote of 17 to 11.

The number of persons employed in the Treasury Department, Washington, is 1,555 clerks, 464 ladies (copyists,) 55 messengers and assistant messengers, and 64 laborers. Total, 2,138 employees.

THE SEA ISLANDS.—Reports from the Sea Islands say relations between the former owners and the negroes are improving. The latter are entering into contracts, and the prospect is encouraging.

A new theatre is about to be erected at Paris, in which the works of Greek and Latin authors will alone be performed—such as those of Euripides, Sophocles, Æschylus, Terence and others. Something like three million francs have already been subscribed in shares, and the architect has completed his plan for the building.

Prominent members of Congress have received letters from the Honorable John P. Hale, Minister at Madrid, asking for more salary. He has only twelve thousand dollars in gold now.

The Legislature of Georgia has passed a homestead bill, giving one hundred acres of land, not to be worth more than five hundred dollars, and five acres for every child. Same amount of property allowed in every city or village.

A cotton factory at Macon, Georgia, is in full blast, turning out ninety-six thousand yards of sheeting per month.

More volumes of poetry by American female writers have appeared within twelve months than during any previous five years.

At a convent, near Paris, there has been an auction sale of the hair of young girls who have taken the veil since 1810; the 800 pounds fetched $6,000.

A Western paper suggests as an improvement in Bibles, the preparation of a leaf or two in the "family record" for divorces.

Ex-President Buchanan is said to spend most of his time in telling stories about the grandeur of his administration; the "old public functionary" is evidently in his ante dotage.

SERIOUS CHARGE.—Gen. Ward, recently confirmed by the U. S. Senate as brevet Brigadier General, was lately arrested at Cleveland, Ohio, on a charge of forging a check for $550 in gold. He was, however, released on bail.

The Prince Napoleon refuses to be reconciled with the Emperor, until he makes some public advances.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability. Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no other. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57, total disbursements $527 805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,244 33.

In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous procrastination destructive. But one says "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

PROSPECTUS

OLD NORTH STATE.

"The Old North State Forever."

THE undersigned will commence the publication of a Daily and Weekly Newspaper, bearing the above title, in the city of Salisbury about the 10th of March next.

The Old North State will be, under our control, a firm and decided Union paper. But while it will be firm and decided in its support of the Union, and of all just and necessary measures tending to its complete restoration, it will yet be liberal and conservative. It will oppose radicalism from whatever quarter it may come. Confiding in the loyal intentions of the great body of the people of North Carolina, it will endeavor to soothe the asperities of the past by promoting among them a spirit of reconciliation and harmony.

Rejecting the exploded dogma of paramount State sovereignty, it will cheerfully support the National government in the exercise of every power necessary to the maintenance of its rightful authority, while it will ever contend against any encroachments upon the reserved rights of the States.

It will discuss all the various political issues of the day, but in doing this it will seek to avoid everything like partizan bitterness or personal vituperation. It will also strive to avoid that detestable practice, so common among politicians, of pandering to the passions and appealing to the prejudices of the multitude in order to accomplish partizan ends. It will endeavor to enlighten and direct aright public sentiment, by disseminating correct information, and by arguments addressed to the understanding—in short, it will endeavor to erect a high standard of political morality.

Its columns will be open for Political, Moral, Literary and Agricultural articles especially, and to the advertising public.

The Old North State will be printed on new type on the following

THE LOYALIST.

THE undersigned propose to publish in Louisburg, North Carolina, a newspaper under the above denomination. The LOYALIST, as its name imports, will yield a firm, uniform, and fearless support to the Constitution of the United States, and all laws enacted in pursuance of that great instrument. To the decisions of the Supreme Court of the nation, in such questions as originate in the interpretation or application of the principles involved in our federal jurisprudence or policy, the Loyalist will accord its unqualified acquiescence, as to the will of the American people, duly expressed through the only legitimate, determinate and sufficient medium. Its general politics will be those so long and so thoroughly taught by the patriotism, the eloquence and the wisdom of Clay, and his departed compeers, and so fearfully vindicated by the present melancholy and helpless condition of the communities so recently arrayed in arms against the integrity and harmony of our national union.

The Loyalist would make the institutions and independence, the material and moral dignity of the nation, as enduring and as brilliant as the stars whose images adorn the field and the folds of its flag. The Loyalist will also dedicate its energies and exert its abilities to ascertain and cherish the interests, as well as to develope the immense resources of North Carolina. To the cause of education, the general diffusion of knowledge, the elevation of the masses, and the religious culture of all within its influence, it will be a consistent and inflexible friend. Its editorial department will be conducted by gentlemen whose names will be announced in due time.

The LOYALIST will be issued weekly, carefully printed, of the size of the Raleigh "Daily Sentinel," and furnished to patrons at $3.00 per annum, payable on delivery of the first number. Subscriptions and communications respectfully solicited.
